Ara Lake Camp Canadian Fishing Trip for Six

Ready to escape from the tasks of your day-to-day life to spend some time on the water? The perfect solution is a week-long stay at beautiful Ara Lake Camp in Ontario, Canada. Inaccessible by car, a brief but spectacular 25 minute flight covering landscapes of shimmering lakes, cascading rivers, and lush boreal forests, will bring you to the camp. Experience world-class walleye, pike, and perch fishing; outshined only by the rugged natural beauty of the Canadian Shield. Collaborate with the staff at Ara Lake Camp to choose the week in August 2018 for up to six individuals to experience this once in a lifetime adventure. Included in Prize Package: Flight from Nakina, Ontario into Ara Lake Camp; Breakfast and Dinner each day; Cabin lodging, hot showers, boats, motors, and gasoline. ## Original Fourth Street Brewing Co. of Sioux City Jacket

Take home a bit of Sioux City history! This collector's item is perfect for the beer enthusiast and is an original from the brewery that opened in March 1998. The brewpub served several beers by brewer Larry Chase including a popular Sue Bee Honey Ale that was, for a brief time, contract brewed and bottled at August Schell Brewing Company in New Ulm, Minnesota. The brewpub closed in 2002 - and now you can become the owner of this memorabilia. This well-made coat is very roomy; tag states "extra-large" and looks sporty on women and men. Larry is currently the head brewer at Standing Stone Brewing Company in Ashland, Oregon. Donated by original 4th Street Brewing brewer, Larry Chase. Value: $200
